

The Gospel Herald

“As the truth is in Jesus” (Ephesians 4:21)

For The LORD’S PILGRIMS, STRANGERS & SOJOURNERS

by Donald E. Martin, Sr.

He Chose Me

It was business as usual that day until I heard Him say, “follow me.” I left all behind me that day when Jesus said, “follow me.” I left my old life behind, knowing completely with no thought that this call could be wrong; as long as I follow the steps of the master I’ll know I’m where I belong.

There were so many others that he might have chosen to follow him, others with learning and great distinction to follow him; then, with authority and forceful ability he knew how to speak and be heard, I don’t know exactly why I’m here at all, but today, today I follow my Lord.

(Chorus)

For he chose me, he chose me. I could not say, “no” when he said, “follow me and you’ll be a fisher of men,” and from now on, from now on, I will not look back on the things I left behind, for he chose me to follow him.

(slow)

Where he leads me I shall follow, where he leads me I shall follow, I’ll go with him through the garden, I’ll go with him, with him all the way. I will not look back on the things I left behind, for he chose me to follow him.